62), which provided an extension of filing deadlines in all three actions, was granted by Your Honor on April 29, 2021 (ECF No. 63). The first request was necessitated by the hospitalization of Mr. Goering. This second request is necessitated by the death of Mr. Goering and to provide time for WFP to consider alternative counsel.

Our firm has conferred with Defendants' counsel, who has graciously consented to a ninety-day stay of the WFP Action. The remaining parties have agreed to stay of briefing on Defendants' summary judgment motion and request a status conference at the Court's convenience in two weeks so the parties can confer and coordinate a proposal on next steps.

We are deeply saddened by Mr. Goering's passing and appreciate the Court's courtesies in this regard.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Peter Guirguis
